WHEN TO GO

Season & rhythm

- How a Calvi week actually runs.: A choreographed operation - berths, tenders and tables locked before wheels-down.
- Embark ready: APA open, crew briefed, transfer timed to Port de Calvi.
- Local cadence: Morning toys, held lunch, short reposition around Calvi, quiet overnight.
- Concierge lock: Restaurants and clubs confirmed weeks out - not left to chance.
- When to berth. When to anchor.: In Calvi, quay nights buy access; hook nights buy privacy.
- Quay nights: Harbour energy around Port de Calvi, walk-ashore dinners, event visibility.
- At anchor: Swim platforms, quiet mornings, tender-only shore calls.
- The usual play: One or two quay nights; the rest swinging in protected water.

FAQ

When is the best time for yacht charter in Calvi?

Shoulder months usually balance weather, water and berth availability for Calvi. Peak midsummer adds density and premium quay pricing at Port de Calvi.

Which marina should we embark from in Calvi?

Port de Calvi is the primary embarkation for Calvi, with anchorage fallbacks when LOA or events block the preferred quay.

How far ahead should we book berths in Calvi?

For peak season around Calvi, 4-12 weeks is typical for larger yachts; shoulder season is more flexible. We open the berth conversation with the yacht shortlist.

What does APA usually cover on a Calvi charter?

Fuel, berthing, food and beverage, and most guest concierge extras. For Calvi we set an honest APA band before contract - not a vague percentage.

Can you arrange airport transfers into Calvi?

Yes - chauffeur and helicopter where available from CLY / AJA, timed to the embarkation slot at Port de Calvi.

How does a Calvi week use Calvi & Scandola?

Calvi & Scandola is a core Calvi pocket - we sequence Port de Calvi nights and day-anchors so the week feels unhurried. Calvi sits inside Corsica as a focused stop, not a duplicate of the country hub.
