WHEN TO GO

Season & rhythm

- How a Costa Smeralda week actually runs.: A choreographed operation - berths, tenders and tables locked before wheels-down.
- Embark ready: APA open, crew briefed, transfer timed to Marina di Portisco.
- Local cadence: Morning toys, held lunch, short reposition around Costa Smeralda, quiet overnight.
- Concierge lock: Restaurants and clubs confirmed weeks out - not left to chance.
- When to berth. When to anchor.: In Costa Smeralda, quay nights buy access; hook nights buy privacy.
- Quay nights: Harbour energy around Marina di Portisco, walk-ashore dinners, event visibility.
- At anchor: Swim platforms, quiet mornings, tender-only shore calls.
- The usual play: One or two quay nights; the rest swinging in protected water.

FAQ

When is the best time for yacht charter in Costa Smeralda?

Shoulder months usually balance weather, water and berth availability for Costa Smeralda. Peak midsummer adds density and premium quay pricing at Marina di Portisco.

Which marina should we embark from in Costa Smeralda?

Marina di Portisco is the primary embarkation for Costa Smeralda, with anchorage fallbacks when LOA or events block the preferred quay.

How far ahead should we book berths in Costa Smeralda?

For peak season around Costa Smeralda, 4-12 weeks is typical for larger yachts; shoulder season is more flexible. We open the berth conversation with the yacht shortlist.

What does APA usually cover on a Costa Smeralda charter?

Fuel, berthing, food and beverage, and most guest concierge extras. For Costa Smeralda we set an honest APA band before contract - not a vague percentage.

Can you arrange airport transfers into Costa Smeralda?

Yes - chauffeur and helicopter where available from OLB / CAG, timed to the embarkation slot at Marina di Portisco.

How does a Costa Smeralda week use Costa Smeralda?

Costa Smeralda is a core Costa Smeralda pocket - we sequence Marina di Portisco nights and day-anchors so the week feels unhurried. Costa Smeralda sits inside Sardinia as a focused stop, not a duplicate of the country hub.
