WHEN TO GO

Season & rhythm

- How a Elba week actually runs.: A choreographed operation - berths, tenders and tables locked before wheels-down.
- Embark ready: APA open, crew briefed, transfer timed to Marina di Campo.
- Local cadence: Morning toys, held lunch, short reposition around Elba, quiet overnight.
- Concierge lock: Restaurants and clubs confirmed weeks out - not left to chance.
- When to berth. When to anchor.: In Elba, quay nights buy access; hook nights buy privacy.
- Quay nights: Harbour energy around Marina di Campo, walk-ashore dinners, event visibility.
- At anchor: Swim platforms, quiet mornings, tender-only shore calls.
- The usual play: One or two quay nights; the rest swinging in protected water.

FAQ

When is the best time for yacht charter in Elba?

Shoulder months in Mediterranean usually balance weather and berth availability for Elba near Marina di Campo.

Which marina should we embark from in Elba?

Marina di Campo is the primary embarkation for Elba, with anchorage fallbacks when LOA or events block the preferred quay.

How far ahead should we book berths in Elba?

For peak season around Elba, 4-12 weeks is typical for larger yachts; shoulder season is more flexible. We open the berth conversation with the yacht shortlist.

What does APA usually cover on a Elba charter?

Fuel, berthing, food and beverage, and most guest concierge extras. For Elba we set an honest APA band before contract - not a vague percentage.

Can you arrange airport transfers into Elba?

Yes - chauffeur and helicopter where available from PSA / EBA, timed to the embarkation slot at Marina di Campo.

How does a Elba week use Elba circuit?

Elba circuit is a core Elba pocket - we sequence Marina di Campo nights and day-anchors so the week feels unhurried. Elba sits inside Tuscan Archipelago as a focused stop, not a duplicate of the country hub.
