WHEN TO GO

Season & rhythm

- How a Kos week actually runs.: A choreographed operation - berths, tenders and tables locked before wheels-down.
- Embark ready: APA open, crew briefed, transfer timed to Kos Marina.
- Local cadence: Morning toys, held lunch, short reposition around Kos, quiet overnight.
- Concierge lock: Restaurants and clubs confirmed weeks out - not left to chance.
- When to berth. When to anchor.: In Kos, quay nights buy access; hook nights buy privacy.
- Quay nights: Harbour energy around Kos Marina, walk-ashore dinners, event visibility.
- At anchor: Swim platforms, quiet mornings, tender-only shore calls.
- The usual play: One or two quay nights; the rest swinging in protected water.

FAQ

When is the best time for yacht charter in Kos?

Shoulder months in Mediterranean usually balance weather and berth availability for Kos near Kos Marina.

Which marina should we embark from in Kos?

Kos Marina is the primary embarkation for Kos, with anchorage fallbacks when LOA or events block the preferred quay.

How far ahead should we book berths in Kos?

For peak season around Kos, 4-12 weeks is typical for larger yachts; shoulder season is more flexible. We open the berth conversation with the yacht shortlist.

What does APA usually cover on a Kos charter?

Fuel, berthing, food and beverage, and most guest concierge extras. For Kos we set an honest APA band before contract - not a vague percentage.

Can you arrange airport transfers into Kos?

Yes - chauffeur and helicopter where available from RHO / KGS, timed to the embarkation slot at Kos Marina.

How does a Kos week use Kos & Nisyros?

Kos & Nisyros is a core Kos pocket - we sequence Kos Marina nights and day-anchors so the week feels unhurried. Kos sits inside Dodecanese as a focused stop, not a duplicate of the country hub.
